

Great meeting coming up!

We will be privileged to have several guests at our October 6th meeting. The Colonel James Eubanks award for outstanding contributions to the military community will be presented to Alabama state representative Neil Rafferty. The award will be presented by an Alabama Council of MOAA officer, either Jerry Steele, our president or Jim Kilpatrick. We will also have Col (ret) Robert "Scott" Grant, former CO of the 117th Air Refueling Squadron here in Birmingham who will speak to us about the 117th and his experiences flying the KC-135 tanker aircraft. A more detailed bio for Col Grant is attached herein. Both should be very interesting so please plan to attend.

By the time that you receive this newsletter, hopefully several our MOAA ladies have enjoyed the Ladies luncheon on September 21st. Donna always does a superb job with the luncheons, so if you missed this one, be sure to plan on attending the next one. This was the last 2022 luncheon, but more will be planned for 2023.

We will again be having our meal catered. Danberry will be unable to accommodate us for meal service until at least the new year. This is a new caterer highly recommended by Danberry.

I look forward to seeing everyone on the 6th. Take care and we will see you then.

Respectfully,
Don & Patricia

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

One of my favorite U.S. Presidents was Ronald Reagan. He always had a funny twist up his sleeve with comments on serious matters. Here are a few. Enjoy the wisdom!

"Socialism only works in two places: Heaven where they don't need it and hell where they already have it"

"Here is my strategy on the Cold War: We win, they lose."

"The most terrifying words in the English language are: 'I'm from the government and I'm here to help.'"

"Of the four wars in my lifetime, none came about because the U.S. was too strong."

"I have wondered at times about what the Ten Commandments would have looked like if Moses had run them through the U.S. Congress..."

"The taxpayer: That's someone who works for the government but doesn't have to take the civil service examination."

"The nearest thing to eternal life we will ever see on this earth is a government program."

"Government's view of the economy could be summed up in a few short phrases: 'If it moves, tax it. If it keeps moving, regulate it. And if it stops moving, subsidize it.'"

"No arsenal, or weapon in the arsenals of the world, is as formidable as the will and moral courage of free men and women."

"If we ever forget that we are one nation under God, then we will be a nation gone under."

Hope you enjoyed this President's words of wisdom.

In His Service,

Chaplain Dan Phifer

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE for October 2022 Newsletter (visit Legislative Action at http://www.moaa.org)

VA Family Caregiver Benefits for 'Legacy' Veterans Extended Through 2025 by Patricia Kime \(originally appeared in Militaery.com\)

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) will extend benefits through 2025 for veterans who joined its family caregiver program under the original eligibility criteria. The extension for the veterans and their caregivers, known as "legacy" participants, will run through Sept. 30, 2025, while the VA continues to review the program, including eligibility criteria that were changed in 2020 as the department prepared to expand the program to veterans from all eras -- a requirement of the 2018 Mission Act. The family caregiver program provides benefits to eligible veterans and caregivers that include support; respite care; health care; and stipends, ranging from roughly $1,000 to $3,000, that were meant to reimburse a family member or friend for the care they provide to a veteran in lieu of a home health aide. The program, which originally was established for post-9/11 combat veterans and expanded last year to include those who served before May 1975, is expected to broaden again in October 2022 to include veterans who served between the end of the Vietnam War and Sept. 10, 2001.

VA Accelerates Toxic Exposure Claims, Urges Veterans to Apply Now by Patricia Kime \(originally appeared on Military.com\)

Veterans who qualify for disability compensation under the recently signed landmark toxic exposures act should begin filing claims. The VA has retroactively designated all health conditions listed in the Promise to Address Comprehensive Toxics, or PACT, Act as presumed to be related to military service effective Aug. 10 -- the date the bill was signed. The law added 23 conditions to a list of presumptive illnesses considered related to burn pits, including certain types of cancer and respiratory illnesses, but they were to be phased in over the next three years, with those who are terminally ill, elderly or survivors having priority and eligible to file immediately. The law also added high blood pressure to the list of illnesses presumed related to Agent Orange, a provision that could affect up to 500,000 Vietnam veterans. Most Vietnam veterans, except for those who are terminally ill; facing financial hardship or homelessness; or were 85 and older, were not eligible to file a claim until October 2026, according to the law. The PACT Act gave the VA the authority to move more expeditiously. The PACT Act provides $278 billion over the next 10 years to expand VA health care and disability benefits for veterans exposed to a variety of toxins during military service, including burn pits, radiation, herbicides and chemicals.

VA Mishandling of Lejeune Water Claims Denied Veterans \$14 Million in Payments by Patricia Kime \(originally appeared on Military.com\)

A provision in the Honoring Our PACT Act allows victims to sue the government for injuries related to exposure at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. The VA mishandled nearly 40% of all disability claims filed for exposure to contaminated water at Camp Lejeune, denying or delaying benefits for more than 21,000 affected veterans. Of 57,500 claims filed since 2017 for illnesses related to water contamination at the base that spanned more than 30 years, the VA denied 17,200 "prematurely" instead of asking for additional information. A total of 1,500 claims were denied for other technical and procedural errors. The mistakes occurred mainly at regional offices, which had a 40% error rate. More than 1 million people were exposed to the chemicals, which can cause various cancers, infertility, miscarriages and death. VA officials in 2017 listed eight specific illnesses as presumed to be related to the water, allowing affected veterans to receive health care and expedited disability compensation. Veterans with diagnoses not included in the list but who served at Lejeune during the time frame also can file claims, although they must prove that their illness was tied to service at the base.

MILITARY SPOUSE'S CORNER

The Fall Ladies Luncheon was held September 21, 2022. It was a success. In addition to a legislative and Surviving Spouse Virtual Chapter update, therapists from Encompass Health made a presentation “Enhance Life with Home Safety”. For me the most interesting part of the presentation was related to how and what music therapy can accomplish.

There are several locations that you can do that here in the Birmingham area, just google "military ID card renewal near me" and a bunch of them will come up. Some may require an appointment and be sure that you have the needed documentation when you go; they can tell you what you need when you call.
